WRITTEN STATEMENT AS TO SUBSTANCE OF INTERVIEW

MS ISSUE FEE
Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

After receiving a Notice of Allowance, Applicants timely paid the issue fee in this application on January 3, 2007. Subsequent to that date, Applicants received a Supplemental Notice of Allowability mailed February 16, 2007, which included an Examiner's Amendment to claim 38, notwithstanding that Applicants had already paid the issue fee. After reviewing the Examiner's amendment, Applicants

S/N 10/032,700
Ref. No.: 659-911
Client Ref. No.: K-C 17154

determined that the Amendment was erroneous, and improperly incorporated extraneous language that followed the period marking the end of claim 38 into claim 38. The new language is similar to language previously recited in claim 38.

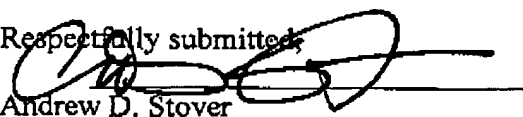

In response, Applicants' undersigned attorney called the Examiner on or about March 8, 2007 to explain that the language following the period marking the end of claim 38 should simply have been deleted, rather than incorporated into claim 38. While the Examiner agreed with Applicants' assessment, she further indicated that there was nothing she could do, and that it was too late to enter another Examiner's amendment, and further that an amendment filed under 37 CFR 1.312 would be improper since Applicants already had paid the issue fee.

The Examiner suggested that Applicants file a certificate of correction once the patent issues, or withdraw the application from issuance. Since it is clear that the new language added by the Examiner is merely duplicative of the previously recited language, and that claim 38, even if issued as amended by the Examiner, is clear and definite, Applicants have elected to submit this written statement as to the substance of interview and will decide whether a request for certificate of correction is in order once the patent issues.

Any questions concerning this Written Statement should be directed to the undersigned attorney at (312) 321-4713.

Date: March 16, 2007

Respectfully submitted,
